

Referee Tim Marshall presents a cheque for £8192.59 to Feonagh Chambers from the Down's Syndrome Association.

This money was raised last season by Referees across Northern Ireland to support the fantastic work of the Down's Syndrome Association, bringing the total raised by referees here for local charities to over £100k in recent years.